LORD MAYOR DEDICATES HOMES FOR LOCAL FAMILIES IN BALLYMUN

The Lord Mayor of Dublin, Councillor Catherine Byrne, dedicated four new homes for low-income families in Ballymun on March 24, 2006. They are the first new homes to be completed by Habitat for Humanity in Ireland. The occasion also marked the 1,000th family moving into a home completed by Habitat for Humanity in the Europe/Central Asia region. Four local families will take ownership of the Ballymun homes, and move from their current accommodation in the Ballymun flats to their new homes in the coming weeks.

The four homes, two 3-bedroom houses and two 2-bedroom apartments, were constructed over the past year in partnership with Ballymun Regeneration Ltd, Dublin City Council, corporate sponsors, volunteers and the future homeowner families. Each partner family participated in all aspects of the build - learning new skills, participating in a homeowner-training course and building relationships with their new neighbours.

In total, more than 700 volunteers, individuals and groups from companies, churches and third level institutions, donated over 7,000 hours of their time to the building of the homes, saving the organisation in excess of €80,000 in labour costs over the duration of the build.

“Daily, our communities are enriched by the untiring work of the many people who give generously of themselves to make our city a better place to live in. I want to thank everyone involved in this marvellous project, and especially all those involved who gave so generously of themselves during this build and who have succeeded in building not only homes, but also communities” said Lord Mayor of Dublin Cllr. Catherine Byrne.

Habitat for Humanity Ireland partnered with EBS Building Society to develop a special mortgage product for the future homeowners.

Professor Brendan Drumm, CEO of Health Service Executive, launching the new Primary Care Team Strategy for Ballymun

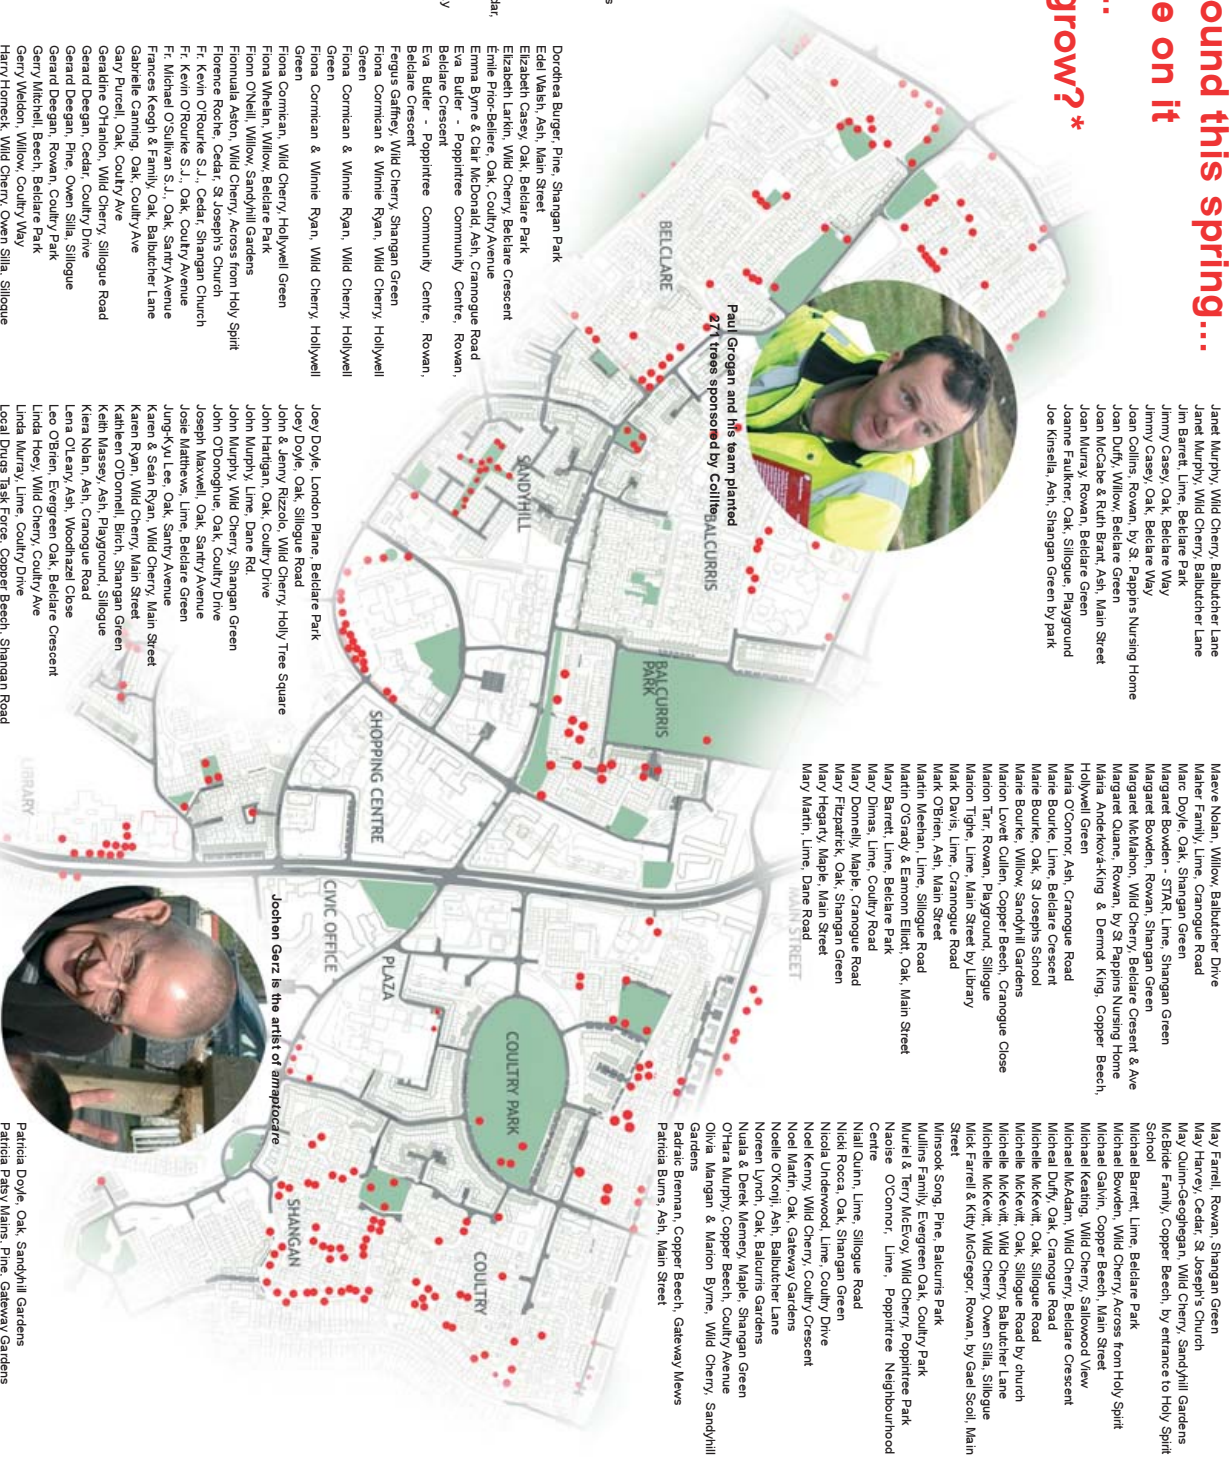

You chose your tree for Ballymun and you paid for it. You offered your story to all of us and we wrote it down on a red enamel plaque. You chose the right spot for your Willow, your Oak... and we planted it, 271 up to now.

Will you be around this spring... To keep an eye on it To see it bud... And watch it grow?*

Paul Grogan and his team planted 271 trees sponsored by ColliBAlCURRIS
